

Mr. Powell, I urge you not to relax these restrictions and end long-standing safeguards that keep our media diverse and competitive. If the American public at large knew what you are proposing to do, surely they would not accept your narrowing our window to the world. We need as many voices in the media as possible, especially in these uncertain times, so the potential for being misled by misinformation is reduced. I beg of you, sir, please do not do this to your American countrymen.

Sincerely,
Scott Monk
